

It is very important that you do NOT give LPFM station priority over FM translator services. Primarily I am concerned about the service of K-LOVE. I am financially supportive of K-LOVE. I have two teenage daughters and this is the only station that I know that we can listen to as a family without concern. Please help we families out here who are trying to raise decent children!